

Eurocircle

Dear friends and partners,

we are looking forward to welcoming you in Marseille. To make it easier and more comfortable for you, we have taken the liberty of providing you with a selection of information.

Read on to find out, among other thing, the best place to book your hotel, how to get there from the train station, how to get from the airport to the train station and where to find Eurocircle.

Since our program will take place on the 12th and 13th of May, we recommend you to come already on the 11th in order to arrive in peace and leave on the 13th in the evening or on the 14th in the morning.

Of course we are happy to help you with any questions you may have, anytime.

Getting to Marseille from Marseille Provence Airport

Eurocircle

SHUTTLE: We recommend you to take the shuttle 'la navette', which runs between the Aéroport de Marseille Provence and the city centre (Gare Marseille Saint-Charles). During the day it arrives every 15 to 20 minutes. The journey takes approximately 25 minutes. You can buy your ticket in advance online, from the ticket office in the airport, or from the bus driver, if the ticket office is closed. Tickets cost 8.30€. The shuttle runs from 05:30 - 21:30 and departs from the bus station outside the airport, at quai 6 (platform 6).

The train station is centrally located. Not far from Eurocircle, you can easily get there by foot or by metro to all the proposed and other accommodations.

TAXI: Taxis from Marseille Provence airport to Marseille city centre cost around 50€ during the day, and 60€ at night. Taxi station phone: 00.33.4.91.02.20.20

TRAIN: Rumor has it that you can also take trains into the city. We do not recommend trying it.

Get fed in Marseille

Not exactly "typically French", the city still has a lot to offer in terms of cuisine. There is hardly a restaurant that we cannot recommend.

However, if your French is not fluent and you have allergies or a special diet, it is better to go with an escort or to selected places where they know how to speak English.

Vegetarian, bio and fair: Mariposas

102 Cr Julien, 13006 Marseille (you'll have a couple of nice bars nearby, too)

For a very good pizza on the hand (for example Chevre-Miel): Pizza Charly

7 Pl. Général de Gaulle, 13001 Marseille (and various different locations)

To have the most authentic Egyptian food outside of Egypt, try La cantine de nour

10 Rue Bernex, 13001 Marseille (the name you're looking for is Kuschari)

If you think you cannot leave Marseille without having tried our famous Bouillabaisse (fish soup) it is affordable at Le petit Cabanon

8 Cr Jean Ballard, 13001 Marseille (ca. 20 Euro but we admit it's very special)

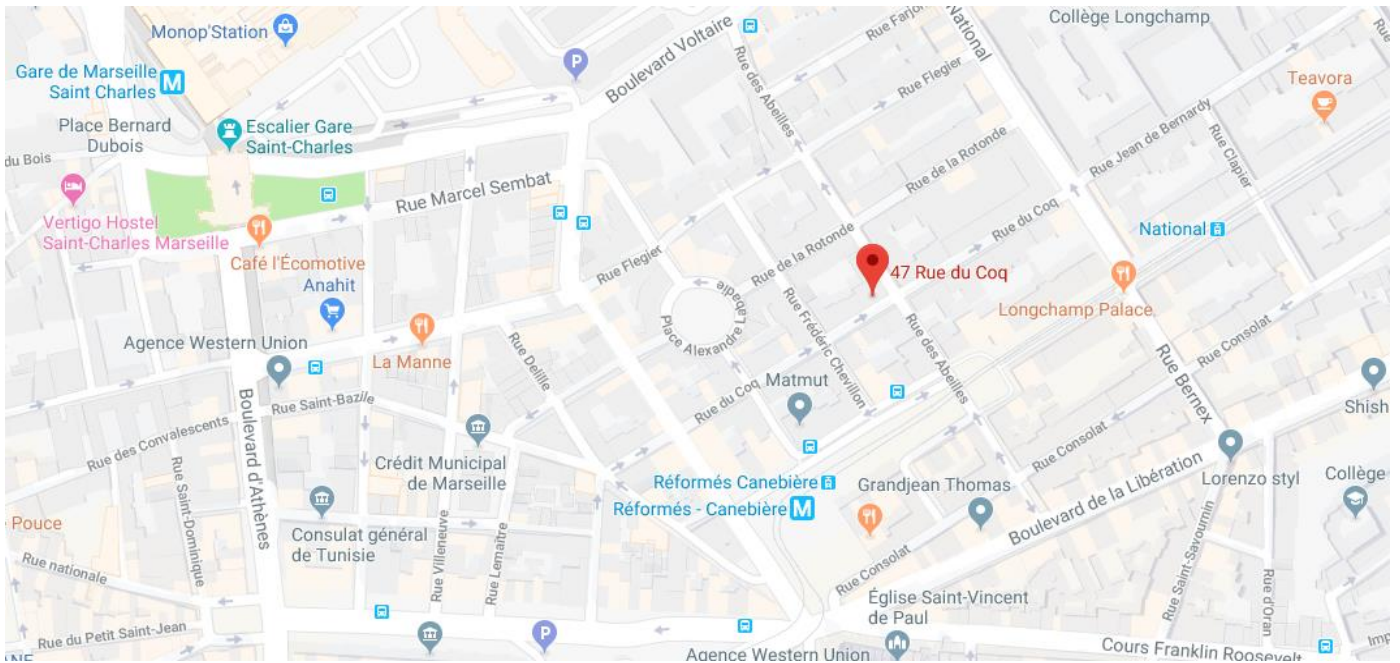

While you're here you should definitely have some Pizza from a truck and/or CousCous, too, to get your Marseille experience right (unless you're on a special diet).

For breakfast, just go to the nearest boulangerie and point to a pain au chocolat or croissant. Nothing can go wrong.
