Małgorzata Osak, chairman of Stowarzyszenie Inicjaty Młodzieżowych – Gdańsk / Poland;

CERTIFY that

Judit Szepesi

representing the Hungarian organization
Tudás Alapítvány-Hungary

took part in the youth in seminary project "YOUTH@WORK" which was realized in Poland (SZTUTOWO) in date 16 - 24 August 2014.

AIMS of the seminary:

The aim of the seminar is to seek new roles for NGOs in the context of the labor market and their relationship with the business and how to employ the private sector.

Dissemination of data and the ability to analyze them, to strengthen social dialogue and cooperation between citizens of the new UE members in the context of the overall objectives, ensure young people with information on activities and opportunities for cooperation and participation in volunteer work and employment.

Project activities:

Our project was 9 days seminar.

During the seminar we were working using methods such as: workshops, presentations, working in the small groups, TED presentations, panel discussions games and energizers. Interesting part of the seminar was groups cooking – participants were cooking alone national food for dinner.

Participating countries

The project will be attended by 44 participants from 21 youth organizations and 4 trainers / facilitators. 20 participants reside in EU countries (Poland, Spain, United Kingdom, Greece, Estonia, Romania, Hungary), two are from the pre-accession country - Turkey, 11 from Mediterranean countries (Algeria, Jordan, Lebanon, Egypt, Tunisia) and 11 of them from the Eastern Partnership countries (Ukraine, Georgia, Armenia, Azerbaijan).
